Work with the children to allocate characters and prepare a short performance. Discuss the stage directions in advance and make sure the children understand how to follow the script.

(Aladdin is with a magician, who is pretending to be his uncle.)

Narrator 1:

Aladdin pulled, and the stone moved. Then, he saw the top of a well. It was very dark inside.

Magician:

Go down into the well. You will find a door. Go through the door, and you will come to some caves. There will be boxes full of gold and silver. Don't touch them.

Aladdin:

Why not?

Magician:

Don't ask questions!

In the caves, you will see a garden. There will be a lamp in it. You can take things from the garden, but bring me the lamp.

Narrator 2:

Then, he gave a ring to Aladdin.

Magician:

This will help you.

Narrator 1:

Aladdin climbed down the well and went into the dark caves. He saw the boxes, but he did not take any of the gold.

Narrator 2:

Aladdin walked into the garden. Every tree was full of jewels! Then, he saw the lamp.

- Narrator 1: Aladdin took as many jewels as he could carry.
- Aladdin: I will come back. But first I must take this lamp to my uncle.
- Narrator 2: When Aladdin climbed to the top of the well, he saw the magician.
- Aladdin: Help me out of this well, please!
- Magician: Give me the lamp first.
- Aladdin: No!
- Narrator 1: The magician was angry. He said some magic words, and the stone moved over the well. Aladdin was caught inside!
- Narrator 2: Aladdin sat down in the dark cave and cried. Then, he touched the magician's ring.
- Genie of the Ring: I am the genie of the ring. The ring is magic. When you touch it with your finger, I will come to help you. What do you want?
- Narrator 1: Aladdin closed his eyes.
- Aladdin: Please take me home.
- Narrator 2: Aladdin opened his eyes. He was home!
- Mother: Where have you been? There is nothing for us to eat.
- Aladdin: I shall sell these jewels and this lamp.
- Mother: That lamp is old. If I clean it, you will get more money for it.
- Narrator 1: When Aladdin's mother cleaned the lamp, a strange man suddenly appeared.

Genie of the Lamp: I am the genie of the lamp. When you touch the lamp with your hand, I will come and help you.

Aladdin: Please bring us some gold.

Narrator 2: Suddenly, there were many beautiful gold plates.

Aladdin: I will sell these plates.

Narrator 1: Three years went past.
Aladdin became a handsome young man.
One day, Aladdin saw a princess, and he fell in love.

Aladdin: I want to marry her.

Narrator 2: Aladdin's mother went to see the king.

Mother: My son wants to marry the princess.

King: He can only marry her if he is a rich man!

Narrator 1: Aladdin waited to hear his mother's news. Then, he went to find the princess.

Aladdin: I love you. I am going to the palace to speak to your father.

Aladdin: Please take bags of gold to the king. Then, bring me expensive clothes and a beautiful horse. I am going to the palace.
(to genie)

Narrator 2: Lots of people followed Aladdin to the palace.
The king looked inside the bags.

(The king looks in the bags.)

King: Now you can marry my daughter!
