Work with the children to allocate characters and prepare a short performance. Discuss the stage directions in advance and make sure the children understand how to follow the script.

Narrator 1: Peter Rabbit and Benjamin go to Mr. McGregor's garden. They want some radishes.

Narrator 2: Mr. McGregor sees them!

Peter: Run!

(Peter and Benjamin run away with three radishes.)

Narrator 1: The two rabbits run from Mr. McGregor. They have got three radishes.

Narrator 2: Peter and Benjamin go back to Peter's house.

Mother: Go and play.

(Peter and Benjamin go off to play. They meet Lily.)

Narrator 1: Peter and Benjamin see Lily.

Peter: Would you like a radish, Lily?

Lily: Yes please.

(Lily goes to pick up her radish but it has gone.)

- Lily: Where is my radish?
- Peter: Oh no! We have got two radishes, now.
- Lily: A robber has got mine!
(The rabbits go to Squirrel Nutkin's tree.)
- Narrator 2: They go to Squirrel Nutkin's tree.
- Peter: Let's eat the radishes here.
- Squirrel Nutkin: No, you cannot eat them here!
(The radishes fall down from the tree.)
- Narrator 1: Peter goes after the radishes.
(Only one radish is left.)
- Benjamin: Oh no! Now, we have got one radish.
(Mr. Tod arrives.)
- Peter: Oh no! It's Mr. Tod!
- Lily: Run!
- Narrator 2: The three rabbits run from Mr. Tod.
- Benjamin: We have no radishes now.

- Lily: A robber has got our radishes.
- Narrator 1: The three rabbits go to Peter's house.
- Mother: We can have lunch now.
- Cotton-tail: We can eat radishes for lunch!
- Peter: Radishes?
- Cotton-tail: I have got your three radishes!
- Peter: Cotton-tail! YOU are the radish robber!
