Work with the children to allocate characters and prepare a short performance. Discuss the stage directions in advance and make sure the children understand how to follow the script.

Narrator 1: Rex is a big dinosaur.
He sees some small dinosaurs. They are playing.

Rex: Can I play, too?

Small dinosaurs: Yes. You can play with us.

Narrator 2: Rex runs behind the small dinosaurs.
He shows his big teeth.

(The small dinosaurs run away.)

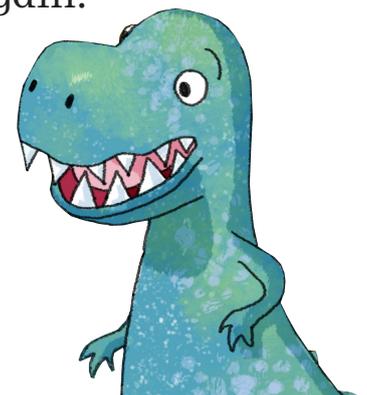

Narrator 1: The small dinosaurs do not like Rex's big teeth.
They run from him!

(The small dinosaurs are playing football.)

Narrator 2: Rex sees the small dinosaurs again.
They are playing.

Rex: Can I play, too?

Small dinosaurs: Yes. You can play with us.

Narrator 1: Rex opens his mouth and roars.
It is a very big roar!

Rex: ROAR!

(The small dinosaurs run away.)

Narrator 2: The small dinosaurs hear Rex roar.
They run from him.

(The small dinosaurs are playing in the water.)

Narrator 1: Rex sees the small dinosaurs again.

Rex: Can I play with you?

Small dinosaurs: No. You are too big. You have got big teeth, and your roar is very big. We don't like it! Please go.

(Rex walks off looking very sad.)

Narrator 2: Rex goes. He is sad.

(The red dinosaurs fly past.)

Narrator 1: Then, Rex sees some red dinosaurs. These red dinosaurs can fly.
The small dinosaurs do not like the red dinosaurs.

Narrator 2: Rex runs behind the red dinosaurs. He roars, and shows his big teeth.

Rex: ROAR!

(The red dinosaurs fly away.)

Narrator 1: The red dinosaurs do not like Rex's big teeth.
They fly from Rex and the small dinosaurs.

Narrator 2: The small dinosaurs are happy.

Small dinosaurs: Play with us again, Rex!

Narrator 1: Rex does not roar.
The small dinosaurs are happy, and Rex is happy, too.
