Work with the children to allocate characters and prepare a short performance. Discuss the stage directions in advance and make sure the children understand how to follow the script.

*(Peppa and Suzy Sheep are playing tennis.
George is watching them.)*

Narrator 1: Peppa and Suzy Sheep played tennis.

Suzy Sheep: I'm hitting the ball to you, Peppa!

Peppa: I'm hitting the ball to you, Suzy!

(George starts crying.)

Narrator 2: George wanted to play tennis, too.

Peppa: You can't play tennis, George. But you can get the ball for me and Suzy.

Narrator 1: Peppa and Suzy loved playing tennis.

Peppa: Get the ball, George!

(George runs back and forth getting the ball for Peppa.)

Narrator 2: George had to get the ball. He ran and ran.
George did not love tennis.

Narrator 1: Peppa's friends came. They wanted to play, too.

Danny Dog: We can play football!

Children together: Great!

(The friends make two teams – a boys' team and a girls' team.)

Narrator 2: The friends were in teams. There was a boys' team and a girls' team.

Narrator 1: Pedro Pony was the goalkeeper for the boys' team. Rebecca Rabbit was the goalkeeper for the girls' team.

Narrator 2: Richard Rabbit got the ball. He ran and ran.
He kicked the ball past Suzy . . .

(Richard kicks the ball into Rebecca's goal.)

Narrator 1: Then, Richard kicked the ball past Rebecca, and into the goal.

Boys: Great!

(Rebecca throws the ball into the other goal.)

Narrator 2: Rebecca got the ball. Then, she threw it into the goal.

Girls: Great!

- Pedro Pony: You can't do that!
- Danny Dog: Rebecca, you mustn't throw the ball into the goal.
(Daddy Pig arrives.)
- Narrator 1: Daddy Pig came.
- Daddy Pig: Let's start again. You must KICK the ball into the goal. You mustn't throw it.
(Richard kicks the ball into Pedro's goal – it's the wrong goal.)
- Narrator 2: Richard Rabbit had the ball. He ran and ran. Then, he kicked it into Pedro's goal!
- Danny Dog: Great!
- Peppa: That's not right.
- Daddy Pig: The boys kicked the ball into THEIR goal! They must kick it into the girls' goal.
- Peppa: Daddy is right. Let's start again!
- Narrator 1: Peppa and her friends loved football!
