Work with the children to allocate characters and prepare a short performance. Discuss the stage directions in advance and make sure the children understand how to follow the script.

(Little Red Riding Hood arrives at her grandmother's house.)

Narrator:

Little Red Riding Hood knocked on her grandmother's door.

Grandmother:

Come in, Little Red Riding Hood!

(Little Red Riding Hood goes into the house and sees her 'grandmother' in bed. It's really the wolf.)

Narrator:

Grandmother was in the bed. But her face was different.

Grandmother:

Come near to me, my dear.

(Little Red Riding Hood moves closer.)

Little Red Riding Hood:

Oh, Grandmother. You have got very big ears.

Grandmother: I can hear you very well with them, my dear.
Please, come near to me.

(Little Red Riding Hood moves closer to the wolf.)

Little Red Riding Hood: Oh, Grandmother. You have got very big eyes!

Grandmother: I can see you very well with these big eyes, my dear. Please, come near to me.

(Little Red Riding Hood moves closer.)

Little Red Riding Hood: Oh, Grandmother. You have got very big teeth!

Grandmother: My big teeth are very good, too.
Now I want to eat you!

(The wolf jumps out of the bed.)

Narrator: And the wolf jumped from Grandmother's bed!

(The wolf chases Little Red Riding Hood.)

Narrator: Little Red Riding Hood ran from room to room.

Little Red Riding Hood: Help! Help!

(Little Red Riding Hood's father hears her calling and runs to Grandmother's house with an ax.)

Narrator: Little Red Riding Hood's father was in the forest and he ran to Grandmother's house with his big ax.

(The wolf jumps out of the window.)

Narrator: The wolf jumped from a window. He ran and ran. Little Red Riding Hood never saw him in the forest again.
