Work with the children to allocate characters and prepare a short performance. Discuss the stage directions in advance and make sure the children understand how to follow the script.

(George and Green walk to each other's houses.)

Narrator:

George went to Green's house. And Green went to George's house.

(Green arrives at George's house. George's parents greet him at the door.)

George's Mom:

Hello, Green! Come in!
Your dinner is on the table.

(George arrives at Green's house. Green's parents greet him at the door.)

Green's Dad:

Hello, George! Come in!
Your dinner is on the table.

(George sits with Green's family at the table. There's a pot full of green slime on the table.)

Green's Dad:

This is our favorite dinner. We love green slime.

George: Green slime? Oh no! I cannot eat that!

*(Green sits with George's family at the table.
George's mom offers Green some fish and chips.)*

George's Mom: This is our favorite dinner.
We love fish and chips.

Green: Fish and chips?
Oh no! I cannot eat that!

*(George and Green's dad are in the bathroom.
The bath is full of green slime.)*

Green's Dad: Jump in the bath!

George: Oh no! I cannot do that. It's full of purple slime!

*(Green and George's mom are in the bathroom.
The bath is full of water.)*

George's Mom: Jump in the bath!

Green: Oh no! I cannot do that. It's full of water!

*(George and Green are in each other's bedrooms.
Green's bed is full of slime. George's bed is clean.)*

Narrator: George went to Green's bedroom.

George: Oh no! I do not want to sleep in a bed of purple slime!

Green: Oh no! I do not want to sleep in a clean bed!

*(George and Green run back to their own houses.
Their parents watch them.)*

Narrator: Then, George ran back home and Green ran back home, too.

Green: I am happy because I am a monster.

George: I am happy because I am a normal boy.
