Work with the children to allocate characters and prepare a short performance. Discuss the stage directions in advance and make sure the children understand how to follow the script.

Narrator: George is with his friend, Edmond Elephant. They are playing with their toy rocket.

Narrator: Peppa is there, too.

(The rocket lands on Peppa's head.)

Narrator: Oh no! The toy rocket is on Peppa's head.

(Mommy and Daddy Pig arrive.)

Daddy Pig: Are you on the moon, Peppa?

Peppa: No. I don't like the moon!

Mommy Pig: The moon is great. You can learn about it at the museum.

Peppa, George, and Edmond: Let's go!

Narrator: The family is at the museum.

Miss Rabbit: Learn about the moon here!

Mr Rabbit: I can teach you about the moon.

Narrator: Peppa and her family sit in a big rocket.

Peppa: Where are we going?

Mr Rabbit: We are going to the moon!

Mr Rabbit: Here's the moon!

Narrator: Peppa and her friends love going on boats, too!

Daddy Pig: Is the moon a big cheese?

Mr Rabbit: No, it's not a cheese! It's a big rock.

Mr Rabbit: People can't walk on the moon. They fly.

(Rubber bands drop down. They all bounce up and down)

Mommy Pig: Look, rubber bands! Let's fly on the moon!

Narrator: Miss Rabbit takes a picture with her camera.

Narrator: The rocket comes back from the moon.

(They all go to the museum shop. Miss Rabbit is the counter.)

Narrator: The family goes to the museum's shop.

Daddy Pig: Can I have some moon cheese, please.

Peppa: Look, we're flying! Now, I like the moon!
