Work with the children to allocate characters and prepare a short performance. Discuss the stage directions in advance and make sure the children understand how to follow the script.

Narrator 1:

(Zac and his dad are at the vet's with Zac's rabbit.)

Zac and his dad visit Jazz the vet.

Narrator 2:

Zac's rabbit has a bad leg.

Narrator 1:

Jazz picks up the rabbit and rubs its leg.

Narrator 2:

Jazz tells Zac he can fix the leg. The rabbit gets a jab in the top of its leg.

(Wendy is at the vet's with her parrot.)

Narrator 1:

Wendy visits the vet. She has a big, red parrot. The parrot yells at Jazz.

Parrot:

Get off me!

Narrator 2:

Jazz has to be quick. The parrot will nip him.

(A man is at the vet's with his kittens.)

Narrator 1:

A man has a big bag. He unzips the bag. It has seven kittens in it!

Narrator 2: The kittens get jabs. Jazz gives the man a tub of pills.

Narrator 1: Jazz has to put the kittens back into the bag. He has six kittens, not seven!

(Jazz finds the missing kitten in a box.)

Narrator 2: A kitten was in a big box. She had a nap!
