Work with the children to allocate characters and prepare a short performance. Discuss the stage directions in advance and make sure the children understand how to follow the script.

(Farmer Carl is planting seeds.)

Narrator 1: Farmer Carl has to pop the seeds into the soil.

Narrator 2: Will his sister go and join him? No!

sister: Ow, my back hurts.

Narrator 1: Carl pops in all the seeds.

(Carl is cutting down the corn.)

Narrator 2: The corn gets taller and taller. Carl has to cut it down.

Narrator 1: Will his sister go and join him now? No!

sister: Ow, my back hurts.

Narrator 2: Now, Carl has to sell the corn in town. He loads up his cart.

Narrator 1: Carl's sister pops on her coat. Will she go and join him?

sister: Yes, the shops in town are good.

Narrator 2: Did Carl let her go to town? No! She did not help.
She can not go to town.

(Carl sells his corn to children in the town.)

Narrator 1: Carl sells all his corn!

(Carl buys a book from a man.)

Narrator 2: Then, Carl gets a book.

Carl: The book is for my sister.
