

Scuderia Ferrari: Famous Races Reader Answer Key

Page 51 – Activity 1

- 1 c
- 2 a
- 3 d

Page 51 – Activity 2

Reader's own answers

Page 52 – Activity 3

Reader's own answers

Model answers

The next great victory for Scuderia Ferrari was in a Formula 1 Grand Prix.

The race was on July 14th, 1951 at Silverstone in the UK.

Twenty cars were in the race. There were three Ferraris.

Juan Manuel Fangio was the favorite to win because he was the winner of five Driver's World Championships.

González won the race by 50 seconds.

(track 2 of the audio download)

Page 52 – Activity 4

Reader's own answers

Model answers

- 1 It's the Formula 1 Grand Prix!
- 2 At Silverstone in the UK.
- 3 Fangio was the favorite because he won the Driver's World Championships five times!
- 4 He was in front at the beginning of the race.
- 5 The victory was the first success for Scuderia Ferrari.

Page 53 – Activity 5

- 1 True
- 2 Doesn't say
- 3 True
- 4 False

Page 53 – Activity 6

- 1 As the hours passed, the Fords stopped one after the other.
- 2 But the 330 P4s just drove and drove.
- 3 After a drive of 4,083 kilometers, Bandini and Amon won.
- 4 The other two Ferrari cars came second and third, so they drove around the racetrack together to celebrate Ferrari's amazing victory.

Page 54 – Activity 7

- 1 Constructors' Championship
- 2 place
- 3 lap
- 4 slow down
- 5 champion

Page 54 – Activity 8

- 1 In 1975, Ferrari's top driver, Lauda, wanted to win the Drivers' World Championship.
- 2 Ferrari's other driver, Regazzoni, had the fastest start and was in first place for the whole race.
- 3 At lap 40, Lauda had a problem with his car, so he slowed down.
- 4 Lauda was third, which was enough for him to become World Champion.

Page 55 – Activity 9

- 1 c
- 2 a
- 3 b

Page 55 – Activity 10

Gilles Villeneuve, in the first Ferrari, was a long way behind the leading teams' drivers. Then, on lap 53 of 76 laps, Piquet drove off the racetrack.

Then, Jones had a problem with his car, and he slowed down.

On lap 72, Villeneuve passed Jones and won the race.

Page 56 – Activity 11

- 1 May 1983
- 2 two
- 3 Canada
- 4 in a racing accident
- 5 in 1982

(track 3 of the audio download)

Page 56 – Activity 12

- 1 Who was the race between?
- 2 When did Patrese drive off the racetrack?
- 3 Which places did Tambay and Arnoux finish in the race?
- 4 What did Tambay do at the end of the race?
- 5 Why did he do that?

Page 57 – Activity 13

- 1 On August 14th 1988, Enzo Ferrari died in Italy.
- 2 The Italian Grand Prix happened a month later at Monza.
- 3 Scuderia Ferrari didn't have much hope for the race. At that time, the McLaren team were winning everything!

- 4 The two Ferrari drivers, Berger and Alboreto, came first and second.
- 5 The newspapers wrote, "Someone up there loves you, Ferrari!" They were thinking about Enzo Ferrari.

Page 57 – Activity 14

Reader's own answers

Page 58 – Activity 15

- 1 In 1979, Jody Scheckter won the Drivers' World Championship in a Ferrari. After that, there was a long wait for the Ferrari fans.
- 2 But in 2000, a young German driver, Michael Schumacher, was close to changing that for Scuderia Ferrari.
- 3 If he won the Japanese Grand Prix at Suzuka, he would be the World Champion.

Page 58 – Activity 16

Reader's own answers

Page 59 – Activity 17

Juan Manuel Fangio won five Drivers' World Championships between 1951 and 1957. In 2002, Michael Schumacher won it for the fifth time.

The final Grand Prix of 2003 was at Suzuka, Japan. Schumacher needed to finish in eighth place or higher to win the Championship.

Page 59 – Activity 18

Reader's own answers

Page 60 – Activity 19

- 1 When Kimi Räikkönen, driving for Ferrari, started the last race of the year in Brazil, he was in third place in the Drivers' World Championship.
- 2 He was seven points behind Lewis Hamilton.
- 3 To win the Championship, Räikkönen needed to win the race, and Hamilton could not finish in the first six places.
- 4 When the race started, Felipe Massa's and Räikkönen's Ferraris raced in front, and Hamilton drove off the racetrack.

Page 60 – Activity 20

Massa was in front, with Räikkönen right behind him. Then, the two Ferraris quickly changed places, and Räikkönen won!

But where was Hamilton? He only finished in seventh place so Kimi Räikkönen won the Drivers' World Championship!

It was another success for Ferrari in a long line of victories—and there are sure to be many more of them in the future!

Page 61 – Activity 21

Project

Reader's own answers

Page 62 – Activity 22

Project

Reader's own answers