Work with the children to allocate characters and prepare a short performance. Discuss the stage directions in advance and make sure the children understand how to follow the script.

Narrator 1:

Pig Rosie is listening to music.

Masha:

Let's play! I'm your mommy. You're my baby.

(Masha has a buggy and an empty baby's bottle.)

Masha:

I want some milk for my baby.

(Masha has an idea.)

Masha:

Bear has milk! Let's go to Bear's house!

(Masha pushes Pig Rosie in the buggy to Bear's house.)

Narrator 2:

Bear is doing his washing.

Narrator 1:

Here comes Pig Rosie! Here comes Masha!

(Masha slips over in a muddy puddle.)

Narrator 2:

Oh no! Masha is dirty!

Masha:

Can I have some milk for my baby, please?

Narrator 1:

Masha has a shower.

Narrator 2: Bear washes Masha's clothes.

(Masha sits in the laundry basket.)

Narrator 1: Now, the clothes are clean and wet.
Masha is clean and wet, too!

Narrator 2: Bear makes new clothes.

Masha: Oh, I like my new clothes!

Narrator 1: Masha goes to the kitchen. She finds some milk.
(Masha drops the milk on the floor and it splashes all over her.)

Narrator 2: Oh no! Masha is dirty again!

Narrator 1: Masha has a shower.

Narrator 2: Bear washes Masha's clothes. Then, he makes new clothes.

Narrator 1: Masha goes to the kitchen. She finds some food.
(Masha sees a pot of pink porridge.)

Masha: Oh, nice!

Narrator 2: Masha eats the food.
(Masha spills pink porridge all over herself.)

Narrator 1: Oh no! She is dirty again.

Narrator 2: Masha has a shower. Bear makes new clothes.
(Masha gets a pot of jam. She has jam all over her face.)

Narrator 1: Masha finds some jam. She is dirty again!
(Bear is resting.)

Narrator 2: Bear is tired. He cannot make new clothes.
(Bear is hanging all of Masha's clothes on the washing line.)

Narrator 1: Now, Masha is clean, but her clothes are wet!

Narrator 2: Bear gives Masha the baby clothes.

Narrator 1: Now, Masha is the baby, and Pig Rosie is the mommy.

(Masha sits in the buggy. She is wearing a baby's bonnet.)

Narrator 2: Pig Rosie is happy! Bear is happy, too!
