Work with the children to allocate characters and prepare a short performance. Discuss the stage directions in advance and make sure the children understand how to follow the script.

(Bear and Panda are in the kitchen.)

Narrator 1: Bear and Panda were hungry. Panda wanted to make dumplings.

Narrator 2: First, they got some dough. Panda rolled the dough.

Narrator 1: Bear cut the dough and made balls with it.

Narrator 2: Then, Panda rolled the balls. Bear got the meat. It was fun!

(Masha is outside chasing butterflies with a net.)

Narrator 1: Masha was outside. She wanted to catch butterflies.

Narrator 2: Then, she saw a caterpillar.

Masha: Hello, little caterpillar! You can be my friend!

Narrator 1: She could not catch the caterpillar. It was too quick.

Narrator 2: The caterpillar ran to Bear's house. Masha ran to Bear's house, too.

Narrator 1: The caterpillar jumped into Bear's kitchen.
Masha jumped into Bear's kitchen, too.

Narrator 2: Then, the caterpillar ran on the table.

Narrator 1: Masha ran on the table, too. Panda was not happy.

(Panda is looking very angry.)

Narrator 2: Masha caught the caterpillar and she put it in a jar.

Masha: You can stay here.

Narrator 1: Then, Masha saw the dough.

Masha: Oh! I want to play with it!

Narrator 2: Panda was not happy.

Narrator 1: Masha played with the dough. She made a bird.

Narrator 2: Then, she made some sausages.

Narrator 1: Then, she made a face!

Masha: This is fun!

Narrator 2: Panda and Bear were angry. They wanted to make dumplings.

Masha: I want to make dumplings, too!

Narrator 1: Panda made small and beautiful dumplings.

Narrator 2: Masha made big and ugly dumplings!

Narrator 1: Panda cooked the dumplings.

Narrator 2: Then, Masha remembered her caterpillar.
(Masha looks in the jar. It is empty.)

Masha: Oh no! Where is it?

Narrator 1: Masha and Bear looked in lots of pots, but they could not find the caterpillar.

Narrator 2: Then, Bear looked in the blue pot. What did he find?

Narrator 1: Bear found lots of butterflies!

Masha: Oh, butterflies!

Narrator 2: She was very happy.

Narrator 1: Then, Bear and Panda could eat their dumplings. They were very happy, too!
