Work with the children to allocate characters and prepare a short performance. Discuss the stage directions in advance and make sure the children understand how to follow the script.

(Bear is relaxing at home. He is playing a game.)

Narrator 1:

It was a nice, quiet day. Bear was in his living room.

Narrator 2:

He wanted to play a game.

Narrator 1:

Then, Masha and Hare came to Bear's house.

Masha:

Bear, we're hungry. What can we eat?

Narrator 2:

Bear was not happy. He wanted to play his game.

Narrator 1:

Bear quickly got a pot of porridge.

Narrator 2:

Then, he took his game and went outside.

Narrator 1:

Masha looked at the porridge.

Masha:

Yuck! I don't like Bear's old porridge. Let's cook some new porridge!

Narrator 2:

First, she put some hot water in a very big pot.

Narrator 1:

Then, she put lots AND LOTS of oats in the pot.

Narrator 2: Then, Masha added lots AND LOTS of jam.

Narrator 1: Then, she added lots AND LOTS of milk.

Narrator 2: Masha cooked the porridge.

Narrator 1: Now, the porridge was pink from the jam!

Masha: Oh, wow! Mmm, pink porridge!

Narrator 2: Masha put some of the pink porridge in a bowl. Then, she ate the porridge.

Masha: Mmm, I like pink porridge!

Narrator 1: Then, Masha looked at the pot of porridge.

Masha: Oh, no!

Narrator 2: There was too much porridge in the pot!

Narrator 1: Masha ran to the pot. She put some porridge in her bowl.

Narrator 2: Then, Masha found every pot and bowl in the kitchen. She put the porridge in them.

Narrator 1: Masha gave some porridge to Hare. Now he was very fat!

(Masha takes bowls of porridge to Hedgehog, Squirrel, and the Wolves.)

Narrator 2: Masha gave some porridge to Hedgehog, Squirrel, and the Wolves, too.

Narrator 1: Now, they were all very fat!

Narrator 2: Then, Bear came home.

Narrator 1: Oh no! There was lots AND LOTS of pink porridge in the kitchen. Bear was angry.

Narrator 2: Masha had to clean Bear's kitchen.

Narrator 1: Then, Bear's kitchen was clean again.

Masha: Bear, I'm tired and hungry now. What can I eat?
(Bear points to all the pots and bowls of porridge.)

Narrator 2: There was lots AND LOTS of pink porridge, of course!
