(Gulliver is in Lilliput.)

Gulliver:

The people were not afraid of me now, so the guards took off my chains.

(The people of Lilliput find Gulliver's hat.)

Narrator 1:

One day, some of the tiny people found a big black thing on the ground. They used some horses to pull it to the temple.

Gulliver:

I was very pleased when I saw it. It was my hat! Soon after, one of the country's great men came to see me.

Narrator 2:

Gulliver thought that Lilliput was a very happy place, but the man said:

a great man
from Lilliput:

We are in a lot of danger now. There is an island near Lilliput called Blefuscu, and the people there are going to attack us. The emperor wants you to help us.

Gulliver:

The people of Lilliput have been very kind to me, so I will help you.

- Narrator 1: Gulliver went across the sea to Blefuscu and saw some ships that were waiting to attack Lilliput.
- (The people of Blefuscu jump off their ships and swim ashore.)*
- Gulliver: When the people on the ships saw me, they were afraid. They jumped into the sea and swam to the shore.
- Narrator 2: He had to put on his glasses because the people began to shoot lots of little arrows at his eyes. Then, he pulled the ships back to Lilliput.
- Gulliver: The emperor was very pleased with me at first, but he wanted me to go back and take all of Blefuscu's ships. I did not think that was right, so I said no, and he was very angry.
- Narrator 1: After this, the people from Blefuscu came to talk to the emperor because they did not want to fight with Lilliput now.
- Gulliver: They wanted me to visit their island. As the emperor was still angry with me, I decided to go.
- Narrator 2: The emperor of Blefuscu and his people were kind to Gulliver, and he liked them—but he was ready to go home to England.
- (The people of Blefuscu help Gulliver to turn the boat over.)*
- Gulliver: One day, I saw a big boat that was upside down in the sea. 2,000 of the tiny people of Blefuscu helped me to turn it. We made big sails and ropes for the boat.
- Narrator 1: When it was ready, he put food—and some little cows and sheep—in it.

(Gulliver waves to the people of Blefuscu.)

Gulliver: I said goodbye to the people of Blefuscu and sailed away in my boat. Two days later, I saw a big ship, and the ship took me back to England.

Narrator 2: When he got home, his wife and children were very pleased to see him again and to hear all about his adventures.

Gulliver: The little cows and sheep from Blefuscu lived very happily in a park near my house. I enjoyed seeing my family, but soon I was ready for another adventure, so I went to sea again.
