ANIMALS AT NIGHT

Leopard video (Book pages 6–7)

- <0:07> Leopards come into the city at night to look for food.
- <0:31> We can only see them with night cameras, but they can see very well in the dark.
- <1:04> This leopard is looking for pigs.
- <1:36> The pigs don't see it coming.
- <1:59> The leopard catches a baby pig ...
- <2:05> ... and runs into the night.

Raccoon video (Book pages 12–13)

- <0:07> These raccoons live in a city.
- <0:13> Now the mother wants to find a new home for her family.
- <0:26> She must carry each baby down from the roof in her mouth.
- <0:38> There is little to hold on to.
- <0:50> But she can climb down very well.
- <0:56> She holds on to the wall with her claws.

Swordfish video (Book pages 24–25)

- <0:07> There isn't much light in the deep sea.
- <0:13> This swordfish has very big eyes, like tennis balls.
- <0:20> They help it see in the dark.
- <0:24> It has a long sword in front of its face to catch food with.
